MISSION STATEMENT:

Inaugurated in 2000, this independent periodical includes essays, biographies, documents, book reviews, historical site descriptions, indexes, and archival listings relevant to subjects of general interest to Latter-day Saints, while striving for high scholarly standards. From 1989–99, the periodical was published under the title, Nauvoo Journal.

SUBSCRIPTION INFORMATION:

Mormon Historical Studies is published semiannually by the Mormon Historic Sites Foundation, Wells Fargo Center, 299 South Main Street, Suite 1700, Salt Lake City, UT 84111. For subscriptions and back issues, contact Mormon Historic Sites Foundation at the above address, telephone 1-801-494-9174, e-mail derek@mormonhistoricsitesfoundation.org. Annual subscriptions to the journal are $30; Canadian subscriptions, $35; other non-USA subscriptions, $40. Back issues are available for Mormon Historical Studies.

MANUSCRIPTS:

Manuscripts on any aspect of the early Mormon experience will be considered for publication in the journal. Papers for consideration must be double-spaced, including quotations, and submitted in an electronic file in Microsoft Word or Corel WordPerfect. Send manuscripts to Mormon Historical Studies Editor, 433 East 300 South, Hyrum, UT 84319-1728. For submission guidelines, see mormonhistoricsitesfoundation.org/publications. A panel of readers will consider each manuscript in the areas of general interest, accuracy of research, adherence to the mission statement of the journal, and literary quality. Viewpoints expressed in the articles published in Mormon Historical Studies are those of the author and do not necessarily reflect the views and opinions of the editorial board.

COVER:

Heather McClellan designed the cover, using her ink scratch drawings of places connected to Joseph Smith. The front cover shows the obelisk placed on the old Solomon Mack farm in Sharon, Vermont on 23 December 1905 to commemorate his birth one hundred years earlier. The back cover shows the home on the Mack farm where he was born. The inside covers have Heather's drawings of the Carthage Jail in Carthage, Illinois and the Whitney Store in Kirtland, Ohio.
