Holmes	Patience	18 Apr 1840	Thirteenth and Coates St died 10 July 1841, her glad spirit left its tene- ment of clay after a protracted illness of ten months which she bore with Christian forti- tude, having no desire to recover but rather to depart and be with Jesus. Looking forth with glorious anticipations to that rest which remaineth for the people of God, she was indeed a patient sufferer, no murmur ever escaped her lips, but her heart was full to overflowing when she spoke of the goodness of God, sweet words of comfort were contin- ually fading from her lips, some of which will not soon be forgotten by one who was often called upon to be with her in her illness

An Acrostic to Susan H. Conrad

Sweeter, O Sweeter, are the joys from on high.
 Unmingled with sorrows—unmingled with sighs.
 Sweeter than roses that bloom in the morning.
 And bright as the Stars—the heavens adorning.

Never, O Susan, let those joys flee away,
 Hold fast to the truth, and thy Saviour obey
 Contend for the faith—the faith of the Saints,
 On Jesus rely, and thy heart shall never faint.

New joys on thy soul shall from heaven descend,
 Riches and pleasures that can ne'er have an end,
 And beauty immortal shall thy temple adorn,
 Down throughout all ages—all ages unborn.

William B. Wilkinson and Wife
 My dear Brother and Sister in the N.E. Covenant. I Could not leave this—which has been to me a happy home, with out leaving with you the thanks and gratitude of my heart. And the Blessings of the Holy Gospel.
 Peace. Prosperity. The whisperings of the still small voice of the Comforter.
 And by Continued Faithfulness Eternal Lives in the Celestial kingdom of our God Shall be your portion. You have fed and Comforted the Elders. In turn you Shall be fed and Comforted.

Your Bro in the Gospel
 John D. T. McAllister

To Miss Susan H. Conrad

When time shall be no more,
 Its joys and Sorrows fled,
 When all its loves are O,er
 And numbered with the dead,
 Unveiled—eternal Truth will Shine
 In its own Image all Divine.

The Saints in robes of light
 Shall walk the Goldon Street—
 Shall throught the House of God
 And worship at his feet
 Or sit on thrones exalted high—
 Entroned in might and magesty.

O Susan, would, st thou Stand
 In that blessed company—
 Obey the Lord, s Command
 And from thy Sins be free.
 I shall be there, and look for thee,—
 Farewell—Till then remember me.

*The poems shown above are taken from the Autograph Album of Susan Hough Conrad Wilkinson. The frontispiece of the album is adorned with angels and the signature of Susan H. Conrad. The branch records indicate that Susan was cut off 4 November 1844, but it appears that she was still feeding the elders in 1861. Other friends who signed her album include Orson Hyde, Benjamin Winchester, and E. Snow.
