

THE MORMON BATTALION
Lyman D. Platt

Council Bluffs, Iowa Territory, on July 16, 1846, four companies of over four hundred men were mustered into the service of the United States. Part of a fifth company was also mustered in at this time, with the rest of the company being filled soon afterward. The following information was taken from A Concise History of the Mormon Battalion by Sergeant Daniel Tyler.

OTHER SOLDIERS AND SERVANTS

Other soldiers are known to have been in California and definitely associated with the Mormon Battalion. These and family members not identified here will be the subjects of another article.

The following were too young to serve as soldiers, but served as servants to the officers in the Mormon Battalion. There may have been others:

Zemira Palmer, to Col. James Allen until his death; to Dr. George B. Sanderson from Ft. Leavenworth to Santa Fe, then to Lieut. Lorenze Clark until the corps was discharged. William Byron Pace, to Lieut. James Pace. Wilson D. Pace, to Lieut. Andrew Lytle. N. D. Higgins, to Captain Nelson Higgins. Charles Edwin Colton, to Adjutant P. C. Merrill. James Mowrey, to Lieuts. George Rosecrans, Samuel Thompson and Robert Clift. Elisha Smith, to Capt. Daniel C. Davis.
