MISSION STATEMENT

Inaugurated in 2000, this independent periodical includes essays, biographies, documents, book reviews, historical site descriptions, indexes, and archival listings relevant to subjects of general interest to Latter-day Saints, while striving for high scholarly standards. From 1989–99 the periodical was published under the title Nauvoo Journal.

SUBSCRIPTION INFORMATION

Mormon Historical Studies is published semiannually by the Mormon Historic Sites Foundation, One Utah Center, 201 South Main Street, Salt Lake City, UT 84111. MANUSCRIPTS

Manuscripts on any aspect of the early Mormon experience will be considered for publication in the journal. Papers for consideration must be double-spaced, including quotations, submitted in triplicate. All sources cited should be properly formatted with endnotes according to the 15th edition of the Chicago Manual of Style. Accepted manuscripts must be submitted on computer diskette in Corel WordPerfect or Microsoft Word format. Send manuscripts to the Mormon Historical Studies Editor, 5525 W. Kensington Circle, Highland, UT 84003. A panel of readers will consider each manuscript in the areas of general interest, accuracy of research, adherence to the mission statement of the journal, and literary quality. Viewpoints expressed in the articles published in the Mormon Historical Studies are those of the author and do not necessarily reflect the views and opinions of the editorial board.

Articles appearing in Mormon Historical Studies are abstracted and indexed in Historical Abstracts and America: History and Life.
