MISSION STATEMENT:

Inaugurated in 2000, this independent periodical includes essays, biographies, documents, book reviews, historical site descriptions, indexes, and archival listings relevant to subjects of general interest to Latter-day Saints, while striving for high scholarly standards. From 1989–99, the periodical was published under the title, Nauvoo Journal.

SUBSCRIPTION INFORMATION:

Mormon Historical Studies is published semiannually by the Mormon Historic Sites Foundation, Wells Fargo Center, 299 South Main Street, Suite 1700, Salt Lake City, UT 84111. For subscriptions and back issues, contact Mormon Historical Studies, 433 East 300 South, Hyrum, UT 84319-1728, telephone 1-435-245-3507, e-mail maurineward@comcast.net. Annual subscriptions to the journal are $30; Canadian subscriptions, $35; other non-USA subscriptions, $40. Back issues are available for Mormon Historical Studies.

MANUSCRIPTS:

Manuscripts on any aspect of the early Mormon experience will be considered for publication in the journal. Papers for consideration must be double-spaced, including quotations, and submitted in an electronic file in Microsoft Word or Corel WordPerfect. Send manuscripts to Mormon Historical Studies Editor, 433 East 300 South, Hyrum, UT 84319-1728. For submission guidelines, see mormonhistoricsitesfoundation.org/publications. A panel of readers will consider each manuscript in the areas of general interest, accuracy of research, adherence to the mission statement of the journal, and literary quality. Viewpoints expressed in the articles published in Mormon Historical Studies are those of the author and do not necessarily reflect the views and opinions of the editorial board.

QUERIES AND LETTERS:

Queries, letters, and comments may be submitted to the above address.

COVER:

Heather McClellan's adaptation of a world map symbolizes the immigration of early Latter-day Saints to America and to their Zion. An article in this particular issue is about the port of landing in Philadelphia. The inside covers add to the theme of Philadelphia with signatures by several members of the Philadelphia Branch of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. They are listed on a letter written to Joseph Smith in 1842.
