

QUERIES

I am searching for a NANCY COURTER OMAN who was in Nauvoo doing baptisms for her deceased grandfather and uncles in 1841. She supposedly went to Utah, according to a Courter family history, but I can find no record of her. In the 1850 Lee County, Iowa, census, there is a JOHN OMAN. That was her husband's name, but there is no spouse with him. Also, in the Wabash, Illinois, 1850 census is Mary's sister, CATHERINE, and a WILLIAM OMAN, age 16.

Please help me with information on JOHN BALANTYNE, his wife, JANET TURNBULL, and children: THOMAS; JEANETTE (JESSIE/JANE), MARGOT/MARGARET, JAMES, and ROBERT. They arrived in New Orleans from Scotland on the ship Tyrain and then went on the Mississippi River to Nauvoo. I also would like information on JOSEPH ALBERT W. ANDREWS, his wife, NANCY D. RICHARDSON, and children, MARION, MARGARET FRANCES (FANNIE), THADDEUS, ELIZABETH ANN, and ABIGAIL EMALINE. Joseph was a minister and a teacher and supposedly was buried in Nauvoo. These two families were among those joining the LYMAN WIGHT contingency who went to Texas.

I am trying to prove the parents of CHARLOTTE CONDIT, born 17 January 1835 or 17 January 1833 in Delaware County, Ohio. She married JOSEPH MCKEE DAVIS. I believe she is the daughter of AMOS CONDIT, brother of SILAS WHITEHEAD CONDIT. Amos was killed near Council Bluffs, Iowa. I also would like information on WILLIAM DAVIS, an early pioneer to Box Elder County, Utah.
